A haven for vets, where fountains flow,
this art resides, where children play and grow.

Seek at the city's heart, where decisions are made, look for art, where glass meets the shade.

Near a field, where laughter's heard, you'll find this art treasure, under a historic bird.

You'll find this art on a pedestrian path so bright, gaze to the west, for a wonderful sight.

Where the sand meets this ocean-front park, an art piece waits, near the entrance mark.

By a bridge that spans so high, where cars pass by and walkers rise. Near the lift, look up with care, a hidden art piece hanging there!
